The Day of the Lord

“And then they will see the ‘Son of Man coming in the clouds’ with great power and glory, and then he will send out the angels and gather his elect from the four winds, from the end of the earth to the end of the sky.”

Mark 13:31

Jesus declared his mission to be the establishment of the sovereignty of God, the kingship and rule of God over the world, even in rebellious human hearts. Using the language and imagery of his time, he described this “earth-shaking” event in terms of cosmic disturbances. The coming of God, the Day of the Lord, would constitute the end of the world as we know it.

Our increasingly regular climate events (hurricanes, wildfires, floods, etc.) may cause us to wonder whether we are not drawing closer to these end times. As Christians we must acknowledge that the death and resurrection of Christ utterly changed the world for ever; it was the Day of the Lord. And yet the world continued then and now, and we have still to prepare for when we will come into that awesome presence. Jesus reminded the disciples, “But of that day or hour, no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father.”

Building Our Future: A Sacred Presence

With that Gospel-centered perspective, we work and plan as disciples for our current and future needs. This summer will mark the 69th anniversary of the dedication of our current church. Our Capital Campaign to fund the major remodel and renovation project for our church, parish hall, and parish cemetery—and build an Adoration Chapel, is now entering an important phase toward its success as we seek a response from all parishioners. Our pastor, Fr. John Kerns, invites us to consider the needs of future generations and to pledge a gift of “equal sacrifice” based upon our family’s ability to respond. Our pledge is an act of faith response to perpetuate God’s sacred presence in our local community.

Catholic Campaign for Human Development

This weekend, we will have the annual second collection for The Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) which allocates funds to community projects that promote the mission and vision of CCHD while adhering to the moral and social teachings of the Catholic Church. This fund, sponsored by the US Catholic Bishops, provided more than 15 million dollars in grants last year through the generosity of individuals and parishes around the country.

Currently 38 million people in the United States live in poverty. This collection funds programs that empower local communities to address the challenges they face.

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development supports those living in poverty across the country. It identifies and addresses the unique obstacles people face as they work to lift themselves out of poverty. In addition, 25% of the funds we collect remain in our diocese to fund local anti-poverty projects. By supporting this collection, you are giving those on the margins a hand up, not a handout. Please be generous.

Envelopes and information were included in last week’s bulletin. Contribution envelopes are also available at the church entrances. To learn more about the collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development, visit (usccb.org/committees/catholic-campaign-human-development/cchd-collection).

Hurricane Relief Matching Fund

Alejandro (right), a member of OLL's deaf community, works for Grant Co. General Contractors and was part of a special team helping hurricane recovery efforts.

Clean-up and recovery efforts following Hurricanes Helene and Milton are continuing in the wake of these massive storms. Samaritan's Purse is a national Christian relief organization that is on the ground helping respond to this humanitarian crisis, and several parishioners have family members volunteering their time with them to assist.

The OLL Outreach Fund has matched our individual donations of $13,104 with an additional $10,000 in support of these recovery efforts. Thanks for your generous response. To donate, visit ollparish.com/give, go to Online Giving, and select the "Hurricane Relief" Fund.

BUILDING OUR FUTURE A Sacred Presence

Our Capital Campaign to fund the major remodel and renovation project for our church, parish hall, and parish cemetery and to build a new Adoration Chapel is undergoing an important phase toward its success. We are seeking a response from every parishioner. Those who have not previously been contacted will receive a letter from Fr. John inviting them to participate in the campaign with pledges of time, talent, and/or treasure.

- This campaign request is not about equal gift amounts, but equal sacrifice. For the sake of future generations, each family should consider how they can best respond.
- Please consider a three-year pledge. This allows families to maximize their commitment by spreading it out over monthly, quarterly, or annual payments.
- This pledge is in addition to your weekly offering. The weekly offering covers the operating budget, which needs to stay consistent. The pledge is for this capital (construction) project only.

- Consider this as an act of faith. Please pray, asking how God is calling you to participate.

Please complete and return your pledge form by December 20, 2024. This will help us plan for construction. If you have any questions or prefer to speak with someone directly, please contact our Director of Development, parishioner Lynn Andrews, at 503-636-7687.

Visit the Building Our Future website at ollparish.com/bof to see all aspects of the campaign and to consider your pledge to contribute to its completion and success.

News from OLL School First Grade

First grade has been busy in our classroom and in our hearts celebrating the liturgical year! We recently celebrated All Saints Day as well as All Souls Day through writing, crafts, and reflections. We learned and continue to learn about all the special saints who we can call on for prayers in all different walks of our life from St. John Paul II, St. Teresa of Calcutta, Saint Josephine Bakhita, and Saint Kateri Tekakwitha! For All Souls Day we made special prayers and paper soul cakes. We even had a special guest come to our room, Mrs. Austin, to read the story Popi's All Souls Song, by C.K. Malone accompanied by our monthly saint guessing jar filled with goodies! As we move into November, a time of reflection with gratitude, I ask you to think of St. Martin of Tours. "The most famous story about St. Martin's life includes when he encountered a shivering beggar while he was fully dressed in his military regalia, and he tore his cloak in half, giving the other half to the beggar. Later that night he dreamt that the beggar was actually Christ." I welcome you to join us in our First Grade Annual Shoe Drive of gently used winter shoes for children in grades K-12. These shoes will be readily accessible at high need schools for children during the winter months. You can drop off the shoes labeled "First Grade" at the front office! Just as Mother Teresa has taught us, if you cannot cloth 100 people, cloth just one.

RESPECT LIFE

November is National Hospice and Palliative Care Month Caring for Loved Ones at Life's End

We are created to depend upon one another and walk together in suffering. But when loved ones approach life's end, we may not know how to provide compassionate care. Surround your friend or family member with love, support, and companionship that are "anchored in unconditional respect for their human dignity, beginning with respect for the inherent value of their lives" (To Live Each Day with Dignity, USCCB). Reach out! Here are 10 tips on how we can compassionately care for them.

1. Invite God in.
2. Listen.
3. Inform yourself.
4. Be steadfast in compassion.
5. Help them achieve closure.
6. Provide opportunities for resolution.
7. Reminisce.
8. Provide a peaceful atmosphere.
9. Show tenderness.
10. Bear their transition patiently.
